and

Friedrich Schiller University Jena

Fürstengraben 1

07743 Jena, Germany

represented by the President, Prof. Dr. Andreas Marx

Universidad de la República and Friedrich Schiller University Jena agree to the following terms and conditions with the intention of deepening the relations between the two institutions and mutually striving to promote scientific and cultural exchange activities. Cooperation shall be pursued in the following three areas:

- (1) exchanging undergraduate students, graduate students, teaching staff, and other employees
- (2) exchanging information and documents which are of mutual interest
- (3) arranging collaborative research opportunities, seminars, meetings, lectures, club activities, and other events of mutual concern.

The cooperation shall refer to all faculties.

I. Administration/Programme coordination

The exchange programme shall be administered by:

- (1) International Relations Service at Universidad de la República
- (2) International Office at Friedrich Schiller University Jena

II. Staff exchange: teaching staff/other employees

- (1) Both institutions agree in principle to the possibility of exchanging full-time teaching staff / other employees.
- (2) The period of stay at the host institution of higher education for staff exchanges shall not exceed one year.
- (3) If the employment relationship of teaching staff/employees continues during their stay at the host institution and if they fulfil the obligations towards their home university originating from the employment relationship during their work at the host institution, the home university shall continue to pay their salaries during the whole stay upon agreement of the partner universities. Additional expenses, e.g. travel and research expenses, may be reimbursed if the home university does have sufficient third-party funding and such a payment is in line with the law. In the case of the Universidad de la República, any disbursement will be subject to the prior availability of funds.

III. Student exchange

(1) Duration of exchange

The signatory institutions agree to exchange individual students for one semester or one academic year, ideally on a one-for-one basis.

(2) Number of students to be exchanged

Each institution may send:

(a) up to two students each year for a full year or

(b) up to four students for one semester within a full year, not exceeding three students per semester.

However, this number may vary in any given year, provided a balance of exchange is obtained over a five-year term.

(3) Student programme fees / Benefits at host institution

Students participating in the exchange programme shall pay tuition fees and other fees to their home university and do not have to pay any tuition fees to the host university. Additional fees required by the host institution, e.g. the semester contribution ("Semesterbeitrag") at Friedrich Schiller University Jena, shall be paid by each student. The semester contribution in Jena contains a general contribution to the student services organization ("Studierendenwerk") as well as a semester ticket which allows students to use all kinds of public transport within Jena and the regional trains in the region around Jena. Other fees and charges, such as for special (non-curricular) courses, key deposits, books, etc., shall be paid by each participant.

(4) Eligibility

It is understood that both institutions will strive to designate only well-qualified individuals for participation in the programme and that academic backgrounds, as well as letters of recommendation, will be provided to the host institution. Students must have completed at least two semesters or equivalent at the home institution. Students must meet language proficiency requirements as established by the host institution. The University of Jena requires B2-level for all academic programmes/courses, German or English depending on the language of instruction of the individual course. Universidad de la República requires B2-level for all academic programmes/courses (Spanish language).

Students should also be self-sufficient and of a stable personality to cope with the intercultural challenge of a study abroad. Students are expected to abide by the laws of the host country and the rules of the host institution. Grave misdemeanours will be brought to the attention of the home institution and may lead to the termination of enrolment.

(5) Balancing the exchange

Parity in numbers of exchange students is the objective of the Agreement. However, each party should be prepared to consider a disparity in any given semester or year during the period of this Agreement.

(6) Academic status of students

All students will remain enrolled as regular degree candidates at the home institution and will not be enrolled as candidates for degrees at the host institution. Credits and acquired course work will be recognized by the home university if these correspond to the study programme for which the students are enrolled. Students are expected to maintain the equivalent of a full course load at the host institution. Students enrolled at the host institution will be subject to the same rules and regulations as local students.

IV. Accommodation and food

The host institution undertakes to inform the participants how to find accommodation. The students shall be responsible for applying for student accommodation. All costs for food, accommodation, application for visa/residence permit (including proof of sufficient financial means) and travel costs are to be borne by the individual participants. Participants must organize their own transport from home to host university and back.

V. Insurance

Each participant must have adequate medical, accident and liability insurance.

VI. Dependents

The obligations of each institution under this Agreement are limited to the exchange students only and do not extend to their spouses or dependents. Expenses of accompanying spouses and dependents are the responsibility of the exchange student.

VII. Additional provisions

Although Friedrich Schiller University Jena has infrastructures to host students with disabilities (accommodation, classroom access, etc.), depending on the nature of the disability, some infrastructures may not be adequate.

Friedrich Schiller University Jena therefore recommends applicants to provide a detailed description of their disability in advance, so that the University may inform them about the feasibility of the planned mobility.

VIII. Finances

This Agreement does not create any financial obligation between the institutions; therefore, no money shall be exchanged. Both institutions endeavour to make their best efforts to obtain the necessary financial assistance from organizations providing support for such cooperation programmes.

IX. Personal data protection

Given that Friedrich Schiller University is subject to the 2016/679 (EU) Regulation of the European Parliament and Council of 27 April 2016, the parties agree to comply with the security conditions and measures required for protecting the personal data of any natural person impacted by the implementation of the Agreement.

Each university determines individually, as data controller, the means for collecting personal data and the purposes of the personal data processing operations which it implements in respect of the implementation of the Agreement hereof and in compliance with the personal data protection regulation.

If required to disclose all or part of personal data to competent judicial or administrative authorities ("authorized third-party processors") pursuant to applicable law, or in the event of imperative decisions, the parties undertake to limit the disclosure of personal data to that which is explicitly and restrictively required.

Both universities will collect personal data fairly and lawfully and will respect the information and the consent obtained from data subjects whenever this consent is required to implement processing. Both will process the personal data used pursuant to the legal grounds which are enforceable against it. Both will implement the technical and organizational security measures required for protecting personal data. Both will retain personal data for a period of time proportionate to fulfilling the purposes for which the data is processed and to take the legal retention periods, which are enforceable against it, into consideration.

- (2) The parties may only amend or extend this Agreement by mutual written agreement. They shall evaluate the Agreement one year prior to its expiration. - (3) Either party may terminate this Agreement at any time by submitting a written notice of termination to the other party. Such termination shall take effect ten months after the date of the written notice of termination referred to above.
