MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING ON COLLABORATION BETWEEN
CITY UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG,
HKSAR, PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA
AND
UNIVERSIDAD DE LA REPÚBLICA,
ORIENTAL REPUBLIC OF URUGUAY

This Memorandum of Understanding (“MOU”) is entered into between City University of Hong Kong (“CityUHK”) of Tat Chee Avenue, Kowloon, HKSAR, People’s Republic of China and Universidad de la Repùblica (“UdelaR”) of Av. 18 de Julio 1824, 11200 Montevideo, Oriental Republic of Uruguay for the purpose of promoting academic exchange and further developing the cooperative relationship between the two institutions.

The parties agree as follows: -

1. Proposed Collaborations

The parties agree to explore the possibility of collaborations in the following areas:

1.1. Exchange of Academics and Research Personnel

Both parties agree to dispatch academics or research personnel to each other to participate in academic exchange activities and to explore possibilities of collaboration.

The parties may consider organising professional training programmes for academics or research personnel. Topics and details of the training programmes shall be discussed and mutually agreed upon by the parties.

1.2. Exchange of Students

Both parties agree to explore the possibility of student exchange. Any arrangement of student exchange shall be governed by a separate agreement on student exchange specifically signed for the purpose.

1.3. Academic Research Collaboration and Joint Research Publication

Both parties encourage academic research collaboration and joint research publication in mutually interested research projects.

2. Further Agreements

If the above possibilities for collaboration appear to be feasible after further discussion between the parties and suitable funding sources are identified, then, subject to reaching mutual consensus on the definitive terms and conditions, the parties may enter into formal written agreement for specific project(s) and collaboration(s) under this MOU.

3. Sharing of Collaboration Outputs

The terms with respect to title to and exploitation of intellectual property, inventions and innovations resulting from the collaborations under this MOU (including but not limited to trademarks and service marks, copyright, patents, knowhow, designs and confidential information on the subject of such intellectual property, inventions and innovations) will be negotiated on a project-by-project basis in the specific project agreements and programmes of cooperation referred to in Clause 2 above, subject to each party's respective contributions to the project, and other relevant considerations.

4. Validity and Renewal

- 4.1 This MOU shall be governed and construed in all respects in accordance with the laws of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China.
- 4.2 Except for Clauses 4 to 5, this MOU is a statement of intent only and not intended to operate as a binding legal document on either party or to create legal relationships between them.
- 4.3 This MOU is made in a set of two. Each party will keep one copy.
- 4.4 This MOU shall take effect as of the date of the last signature below ("Signature Date") and will remain in force for THREE (3) years from the Signature Date unless and until terminated by either party with SIX (6) months prior notice in writing. Both parties shall discuss and decide on the continuation or revision of the MOU SIX (6) months prior to its expiration.

5. Publicity and Use of Logos

- 5.1 The parties acknowledge the merits of positive publicity but they recognise that neither party should make any press announcement or public statement about the proposals or this MOU which has not been agreed in advance by the other party. Any marketing information or materials, such as press release, public announcement or interview, relating to this MOU and/or any programmes or initiatives to be undertaken pursuant to this MOU, shall be reviewed and approved by both parties before publishing or disclosing to any third party.
- 5.2 Neither party may use the other party's name, logos or trademarks, or any variation, adaption or abbreviation thereof, without the other party's prior written consent.
